Applicant understands that park must be cleaned and returned to good order at conclusion of event. In the event that the named organization does not return the facility to good order at the conclusion of the event, the City of Ashland may bill the organization for any fees incurred. As with all City of Ashland parks, no alcohol is permitted.

The City of Ashland is not responsible for, and will not be held liable for, any activities or injuries that result from this organization's use of the facility. The use of the Kinnaman Park location for food or beverage distribution to the public is contingent upon a copy of the applicant's liability insurance submitted with this application which names the City of Ashland as co-insured.
