3. New Residential Board of Building Appeals:
 - 842 McKinley Blvd – Owner – Enterprise Parkway Leasing LTD
 - Scott Conery requests a variance for electrical outlet spacing per the NEC rule 210.52 (A) 1-3 which requires receptacles in most rooms in a dwelling unit to not have any part of wall perimeter of the room not served by a receptacle for a space exceeding 6'. Much of the exterior perimeter are glass walls which would require receptacles to be floor receptacles.
